Description of the project

The Christopherus home is a house for mentally handicapped adults. It is an anthroposophic institution and is led by pedagogical Waldorf principles. “In need of soul-care” is a word which derives from the anthroposophic way of speaking and means “mentally handicapped.”

Days, weeks and years are determined by a special anthroposophic rhythm of life. They try to live in harmony with nature (organic farming, vegetarian food, natural building material, Christian way of living). There is great importance given to activities in crafts and music.

What does the work of the volunteers look like?

You are required to accompany the residents in their everyday life. Your work depends on the group-life and your own scope in dealing with the residents.

In addition, you will be asked to help with housework activities (washing up, doing the laundry, cooking) and nursing (i.e. hygiene, dressing). Moreover, you will spend some leisure time with the residents (singing, knitting, doing handicrafts, going for a walk).

You will help to organize the yearly celebrations and cultural activities, which are typical of anthroposophic institutions.

Room and board

You have a furnished room within a living group. Food is provided by the institution.

Lodging address: Im Wullen 75, 58453 Witten.

Other

The Christopherus home is a very nice house situated in a beautiful area. The house lies on the outskirts of Witten and can be reached easily by bus (10 min walk to the bus stop).

How to get there

If you come by plane, you will arrive at Düsseldorf or Köln/ Bonn airport. From there you have a train connection via Essen or Hagen to Witten.

Point of contact: Frau Franz

Description of the project

The mentally and physically handicapped people live in eight kinds of flat-sharing communities in different parts of Essen. The philosophy of the institution says that the handicapped people should lead their lives as independently as possible. Staff and volunteers support the residents in doing so.

What does the work of the volunteers look like?

- Housework activities such as helping the residents with setting the table, doing the laundry, tidying up the common rooms, cleaning the bedrooms, bathrooms, and the toilets
- Nursing activities such as helping the residents with their daily hygiene, dressing, eating, taking a shower, washing, and using the restroom. You may go shopping with them, to the doctor, or to the physiotherapist
- Social activities are usually not expected

Room and board

You live in a flat-sharing community with other volunteers. You will have a furnished room. A monthly lump sum for buying groceries is provided. Cooking is possible in a shared kitchen.
Lodging address: Mülheimerstraße 68, D- 45145 Essen

Other

The volunteers also have the chance to take part in trainings for the staff.
Good knowledge of German is necessary.

How to get there

Take a train to the main station in Essen.
Or, come by plane to Düsseldorf or Köln / Bonn airport. From there, take a train to the main station in Essen.
Please arrange any further details with Frau Franz.

Rheinisches Heilpädagogisches Heim Bonn
Wohngruppenverband Seelscheid
Arndtstr.6
53819 Neunkirchen-Seelscheid

Contact person: Mrs.Nötges-Fuchs (02247-9211-47)

Description of the institution

There are mostly elderly with mental disabilities living in the special education home.

How das the voluntary work look like?

Men and women live in group homes or in shared flats with up to 10 people. Disabled people need depending on their skill and the severity of the disability advice, verbal instructions, help, support, or a complete takeover of activities.

The FSJler support the pedagogical staff in the individual support of people with disabilities mainly in the following tasks:

- Purchase of personal items such as clothing, toiletries, materials for recreation, items for room design
- Grocery shopping and meal preparation.
- Washing, mending, and sort of personal laundry
- Keep clean, clean up and design of the resident's room and the living room group
- Companionship to assistance services, employment opportunities and job offers
- Help in the ingestion of the Meals
- Personal care (bathing washing, brushing teeth, hair care, skin care) and personal hygiene like (visits to the toilet, diaper)
- Taking clothes on and off
- Design of the free time with things to do in and outside of the group home (Creative activities, walks, participation in events, trips, and vacations)
- Structuring and managing the personal everyday of the residents
- Health maintenance (accompanied to the doctor and hospital) Perform simple medical prescriptions in the home care setting (Baths, rubbing, weight control) No procurement of drugs

Basically FSJler not work alone in the group homes. There is always a responsible professional available. After appropriate training time (at least 4 weeks), and after consultation with the Head of Department it is possible to extend the autonomous work under professional guidance. The work is based on the requirements within the institution set-up times. The work week is 38.5 hours. There are shifts of 7.5 hours (beginning of the morning shift 6:30 clock, the end of the late shift 21:30 clock) and working in a 14-day weekend rhythm.

Especially important for candidates is to endure acoustic unrest well as some residents are often very loud and noisy.

Housing and Meals

You live in a small apartment with probably another person. Everyone has their own room. Kitchen and bathroom are shared.

Other

Seelscheid is ca. 30 km far from Bonn and Cologne. In the village there are some shops and pubs. Cinemas and adult education can be found in Siegburg, ca. 12 km away. During the regular daytime a Bus is going to Siegburg. On evenings and weekends the bus service is limited.

Arrival

By train to central station Cologne. From there, take the bus or tram to Siegburg.

Jugendhof Vlotho

Address

Oeynhausener Str. 1
32602 Vlotho
Tel: 05733/9230
Contact Person: Frau Rasche

Description of project

The „Jugendhof Vlotho“ was founded 1946. It is one of the oldest educational centres in Germany. The Jugendhof is organising seminars and workshops for people working with children and young people. Mostly these seminars and workshops last several days. The participants are living in the Jugendhof for this time.

Work of volunteer

- Working at the reception i.e. being in contact with the guests, helping them with minor problems and guiding them through the house
- co-operation with the lecturers in the educational work
- minor work in housekeeping for example organising something to drink for the participants, bringing the cleaned linen to the wardrobe (but not cleaning the rooms)
- possibility to sit in the seminars and workshops
- help with some seminars in the area of music and art

The volunteer work 5 days per week and have 26 days of holiday in the year. The volunteer work 38,5 hours a week in the time from 9 am to 7 pm. (There are different shifts.)

Room and board

The placement provides the food. The placement provides a room with a bed, a table, a chair and a wardrobe in the guest house.

If there are no guests it could be that the volunteer is all alone in the house for some days. Because of that the Jugendhof just want male volunteers.

Other

The volunteer should understand and speak a little German to get the contact to the guests.

The volunteer should like to contact with other persons. It would be very good, if the volunteer has some experiences in the creative field.

Vlotho is a little town in „Ost-Westfalen“ and there are some cities nearby: Bad Oeynhausen (5 Km), Bielefeld (30 Km), Osnabrück (60 Km), Hannover (90 Km).

There is a train station nearby (10 minutes walking).

Arrival

With the train to Bielefeld central station. For further arrangements get in contact with Mrs Rasche
