

VISION

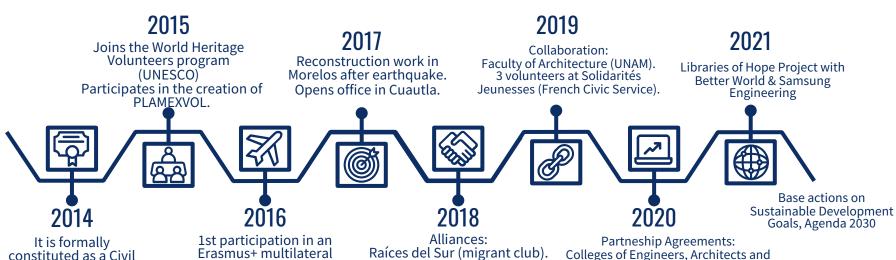

The transformation of Mexican society, particularly youth, through international volunteering.

MISSION

Provide opportunities for Mexicans to travel and live unique experiences as volunteers in Mexico and abroad, participating in projects of general interest and reversing that experience in their communities, schools, families, organizations and jobs.

HISTORY

Association

Start of enhancement of the Aqueduct of El Hospital (with INAH endorsement)

REMPART (France, restoration).

project with Spain.

Colleges of Engineers, Architects and the Technological Institute (Morelos)

Enhancement of the San José de Buenavista Aqueduct (Cuautla)

Joins the Climate Heritage Network

ACTIVITIES

WEEK-END WORKCAMPS

MEDIUM AND LONG TERM VOLUNTEERING

INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTARY WORKCAMPS

ACTIVIDADES

CAMPAIGNS

PRESENTATIONS

FAMILY REUNIONS

2030 UN AGENDA

STRUCTURE OF AMVIAC

General Assembly

Composed of adherent members, active members, benefactors and civil associations

Annual meetings in January/February

Guide and prioritize future actions

Association currently made up of 85 members

Board of Directors

Juan Gómez Santoyo

President
Jara Molina García
Secretary
Maurice Aguilar Osorio
Tresurer
Lennin Vick Pacheco
Vocal
Ma. Isabel Cervantes
Vocal

Staff

Nicolás Aguilar Osorio
Director
Ricardo Rojas Téllez
Volunteering coordinator
Claudia Vega Bermúdez
Special projects
Maurice Aguilar Osorio
Volunteering coordinator
Erik González Rodríguez
North Zone Coordinator
Gustavo Andrew Correa
Community manager

NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL PARTNERS

CONTACT

Circunvalación #67, Col. Guadalupe Victoria, Cuautla, Morelos, C.P. 62746, México

www.amviac.org

www.facebook.com/amviac

www.instagram.com/amviac

www.twitter.com/AMVIAC

Channel AMVIAC AC