AGE GROUP	18-32
NUMBER OF VOLUNTEERS	6
LOCATION	Maribo, Lolland Denmark
ORGANISATION	The main hosting organisation for this Work Camp is the Youth Council of Lolland municipality. The Council will be hosting the Work Camp together with The Golden Banana (organizing events for young people) and Lolland Music School. During the Work Camp, three events will take place, and you will get a chance to be a part of it all. The first event is the 'Concert Week,' which is arranged by the Music School of Lolland. They will arrange concerts with bands in different locations across the island. The second event is the Danish Youth Week. This is the first time Youth Week will take place and the goal is to show that young people living in rural areas like Lolland can make magic happen. The third event is the 'Nærvær Festival.' It is a one-day festival organized by young musicians on Lolland and takes place on May 7th 2022.
WORK	The festival and the majority of the activities will take place in Maribo, but during the stay, you will visit different parts of Lolland.

	For the concert week, you will be helping with logistics and promotion. You will attend the concerts and help with taking pictures, distributing t-shirts, carrying instruments and driving a bus (if you have an EU driver's license). If you want, you can also be part of one of the choirs or bands during the concert week. Youth Week will host different events on Lolland during the week. There will be concerts, parties, game nights and others arranged by youth people, and you will assist with logistics, engagement of other youth and promotion. At the festival, you will be assisting with various tasks including setting up the festival, helping on the stage, promoting the festival in the streets, carrying instruments etc. on the festival day and the day before. Volunteers meet at 8 AM on May 7th. There will be work during the day, but also time to enjoy the concerts and the atmosphere. Preliminary Schedule (can still change): April 30th: Arrival and meet the locals involved in the three activities. May 1st: Introduction to the activities during the week and getting to know the local area. May 2nd: Assisting the Lolland Music School for the concert week. May 3rd: Day off May 4th-6th: Assisting the Lolland Music School with Youth Week. Saturday, May 7th: Participation in 'Nærvær Festival.' Sunday, May 8th: Packing and farewell. Optional social activities with other young people during some of the days. No specific skills are needed, but if you are interested in music and hanging out with other young people, you will definitely enjoy it. We would also very much like to know if you have some special skills so we can involve you as much as possible in activities you like and is good at. You might be a great video editor or good at singing.
ACCOMMODATION AND FOOD	Accommodation: The volunteers will be hosted at a hostel located in Maribo, the town where the majority of the activities will take place. If you do not wish to share rooms with the rest of the Work Camp volunteers of different genders, then it is a possibility to be hosted privately. The hostel is located within walking distance of all camp activities.

	Food: At the hostel, there is a common room with kitchen facilities, where you can prepare your meals or just relax. The host will purchase your groceries. On the day of the Nærvær Festival, lunch and dinner are provided at the festival site. Bathroom Facilities: There will be bathroom and shower facilities at the hostel. You will have to bring linen and bed covers, and the hostel will provide the rest. It will be possible to wash your clothes at the hostel for a small charge.
LOCATION AND LEISURE	Maribo is a small town in the centre of Lolland, known for its lakes, where you can go for walks or go kayaking. Currently, Lolland hosts the construction site of the Femern Belt Tunnel, which is a huge project worth visiting. It is also worth visiting the smaller islands on the coast of Lolland or some of the beautiful nature parks or historic towns. Your Work Camp coordinators or contact person will help you and the group with organising activities in your spare time. It is free to enjoy the beautiful nature of Lolland, but some activities might require an extra charge. The host will not cover additional charges.
SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS	To participate in this Work Camp, we require you to provide: - A motivational letter. You must include any skills you would like to contribute with. In regards to COVID-19, it is our ambition to complete our Work Camps this summer, but it is essential for us that our volunteers feel safe during the time they spend at our camps. This is why we constantly keep ourselves updated on the situation and we follow the Danish government's instructions. Furthermore, we are ready to answer any questions that you might have, and we will keep all our volunteers updated right up until the start of the Work Camp. Your Work Camp host will have guidelines on how to handle COVID-19 during your stay, including how to handle isolation and enforcement of government guidelines. For security reasons, we can unfortunately not have volunteers with hearing or sight disabilities. For other physical disabilities, it depends on whether the volunteer can do manual work for several hours since the work is about construction and is very physical.

	English will be the only language spoken. All participants must be willing to speak English, even though being from the same country or have trouble with the English language. Try your best! We will advise you to bring warm clothes that are fit for outdoor work and might get dirty. Unfortunately, we cannot control the weather, so it is a good idea to bring rain clothes too.
