

SCI Catalunya

PeaceWeek / Migration and climate emergency

14-21 November, Barcelona

Introduction

The aim is to create a space for youth from different countries to tackle the global issue of climate emergency and the impact it has in different territories, especially putting the focus on human rights violations caused on countries and communities from the Global South.

Goals:

1. Get to know each other's experiences around the topic.
2. Learn about structural causes and impacts of the current economic global model: extractivism, environment destruction, hate speech and authoritarian policies responsible for people's forced displacement.
2. Reinforce ecofeminist and intercultural points of view.
3. Put the focus on resistance experiences from different countries shared by participants.
4. Raise awareness and encourage networking among participants' organizations.
5. Collect tools and strategies for resistance, democratization, nonviolent participation and action.
5. Train the participants in digital safety, hate speech, defense of human rights and peace building.
6. 'Mapping' of local initiatives and fights of young defenders of human rights, to multiply the effects and make more visible the feminism and ecology movements in the South Mediterranean area.

Profile of the participants

There will be 9 participants and 3 coordinators. Each branch must select one participant. If you wish to participate, send an email with a motivation letter to your branch (see contacts below) explaining why you would like to take part in this project.

SCI youth workers of other branches (especially Climate Justice and MIDI) are encouraged to participate. In order for you to take full advantage of this experience, we would like you to fulfil some little tasks in preparation for the training course:

- Please talk to your Sending Organization about the local activities done related to climate emergency and migrations.
- Think about one or more methods you would like to focus on for a potential activity.
- Do a little research about the situation of climate emergency and migration in your country.

Participants are expected to arrive on the 14th and leave on the 21st of November. Yes, it is in Barcelona, but please don't apply if it only makes you think about sangría and disco-balls! This training is a serious commitment and it needs to be taken as such. Thank you.

Erasmus + project

This is a KA1 Erasmus+ project, which means that this project is financed by the European Commission. For this reason, all the food, visa, travel and accommodation expenses related to the project are covered. There is a budget for each participant depending on the country of origin. We will send you more information about it once it is prepared.
