

VOLUNTEERING AT INTERNATIONAL SCOUT CENTRE RUSTAVI

WHO WE ARE?

The International Scout Centre Rustavi (ISCR) is a dynamic youth development hub located in Rustavi, Georgia. Founded in 2013, ISCR serves as a platform for scouting, youth work, non-formal education, and international volunteering. Our center is dedicated to empowering young people through learning experiences, leadership training, and cultural exchange. ISCR operates under the Caucasus Cooperation Foundation for Youth Development (CCFYD), a charitable foundation supporting youth development in Georgia and the wider Caucasus region.

OUR MISSION & VISION

At ISCR, we believe in the power of education, scouting, and community service to transform lives. Our mission is to:

- Promote youth empowerment through scouting, non-formal education, and volunteering opportunities.
- Encourage active citizenship and engagement in local and international projects.
- Foster intercultural dialogue and mutual understanding among young people from different backgrounds.
- Support personal and professional development through leadership training and hands-on learning.
- Promote sustainable and outdoor education, encouraging young people to connect with nature.

FACILITIES & LOCATION

The Scout Centre is situated in Rustavi, a city located 27 km from Tbilisi, Georgia's capital. The center is easily accessible from Tbilisi International Airport (30 minutes by car) and is well connected to public transportation.

ISCR's facilities include:

- A Scout Villa & Youth Hostel with comfortable accommodation for volunteers and guests.
- Seminar rooms and training spaces for workshops and educational activities.
- A large camping area for outdoor programs, capable of hosting up to 300 people.
- Amphitheater, stadium, and sports fields for physical activities and events.
- Gardens and green spaces, fostering a sustainable and nature-friendly environment.
- Traditional Georgian corner

ISCR is more than just a volunteer placement; it is a vibrant community where young people can learn, grow, and contribute to meaningful projects while experiencing Georgia's rich culture.

OVERVIEW OF VOLUNTEER ROLES

We are looking for European Solidarity Corps (ESC) volunteers for 2025:

- 5-10 Short-Term Volunteers (1–4 months, June–Sept/Oct)
- 5 Long-Term Volunteers (6–12 months, starting from September)

OUTDOOR & SCOUTING VOLUNTEERS

Outdoor & Scouting Volunteers are responsible for organizing and leading various hiking, trekking, and camping activities for local youth and international guests. They assist in planning and executing scout camps and adventure-based learning programs, ensuring that participants gain valuable survival and teamwork skills.

Their work includes preparing routes for day hikes and multi-day expeditions, setting up camping sites, and teaching outdoor survival techniques. Volunteers also help with team-building exercises, leadership workshops, and environmental education programs to raise awareness about sustainable outdoor practices. Additionally, they support youth leadership programs and assist in coordinating seasonal scouting events, such as autumn and spring hikes or summer camps.

Beyond outdoor activities, they contribute to the maintenance of hiking trails, camp facilities, and outdoor recreational spaces at ISCR, ensuring they remain in top condition for future events and activities.

SOCIAL MEDIA & CONTENT CREATION VOLUNTEER

The Social Media & Content Creation Volunteer plays a crucial role in promoting ISCR's activities by managing social media platforms, photography, videography, and digital content production. Their daily tasks include creating engaging posts, filming and editing videos, and writing blog articles that highlight volunteer experiences, events, and ISCR's impact.

They work closely with the communications team to develop marketing strategies for increasing ISCR's visibility among potential volunteers and partner organizations. This includes designing campaigns to promote ESC volunteering opportunities, covering live events, and capturing high-quality images to showcase ISCR's programs. Additionally, they are responsible for updating the website, managing newsletters, and engaging with the online community to answer questions and encourage participation.

PROJECT WRITING & MANAGEMENT VOLUNTEER

This role involves learning about and assisting in project development, funding applications, and grant writing. Volunteers gain hands-on experience in writing Erasmus+ and ESC project proposals, supporting ISCR's fundraising efforts, and helping to design youth mobility programs.

Tasks include conducting research on funding opportunities, drafting project budgets, and collaborating with partner organizations to develop meaningful youth initiatives. Volunteers also assist in organizing informational campaigns about Erasmus+ opportunities for local youth and contribute to outreach strategies to strengthen ISCR's network of international collaborators.

As part of their professional development, they receive training in project management methodologies, proposal writing, and event planning, which equips them with valuable skills for future careers in the non-profit and youth development sectors.

ADDITIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES FOR ALL VOLUNTEERS

In addition to their primary roles, all volunteers will take part in rotational tasks that ensure the smooth operation of ISCR. Each week, volunteers will rotate through different responsibilities, including:

- Reception Duties: Welcoming guests, providing information about Rustavi and Tbilisi, assisting with transportation inquiries, and helping with accommodation logistics.
- Kitchen Assistance: Helping prepare meals, organizing kitchen supplies, and maintaining cleanliness in the dining area.
- Housekeeping: Ensuring the cleanliness and organization of volunteer accommodations, common areas, and guest rooms.
- Gardening & Outdoor Maintenance: Watering plants, maintaining green spaces, and assisting in the upkeep of ISCR's outdoor facilities.
- Technical & Maintenance Support: Helping with minor repairs, organizing equipment storage, and ensuring the proper upkeep of ISCR's physical infrastructure.

This rotation system allows all volunteers to experience different aspects of ISCR's daily operations while ensuring a fair distribution of responsibilities. Volunteers will work in teams, and schedules will be planned in advance to provide variety and balance in their tasks.

ABOUT RUSTAVI

Rustavi is a vibrant city in southeastern Georgia, just 30 minutes from Tbilisi and close to the international airport, making it easily accessible. Once an industrial hub, Rustavi has evolved into a modern city with a relaxed atmosphere. It's not too big, not too small - just the right size to offer a comfortable balance of urban life and tranquility.

While it's much quieter than the bustling capital, Rustavi still has plenty to offer, from cozy cafés and parks to cultural spots and local markets. Whether you're looking for a peaceful environment or new experiences, Rustavi is a great place to explore and enjoy.

We will provide selected volunteers with a detailed practicality document and a guide to help you settle into Rustavi smoothly.
