

Call for Volunteers:
“La Città dell’Utopia” project in Rome for 12 months

We are looking for 2 volunteers to join our long-term volunteering project funded by the European Union through the European Solidarity Corps programme, for the period between September 2025 and September 2026.

What is the European Solidarity Corps?

The European Solidarity Corps is a funding programme of the European Union that creates opportunities for young people to undertake a long-term voluntary placement with the costs paid. Projects can be of community interest, in the social, environmental, or cultural field.

To participate in ESC you must be aged between 18 to 30 years old and be motivated by supporting important causes, discovering other cultures and living closely with people from other countries.

Volunteers abroad receive funding to cover accommodation, food, travel, insurance and pocket money through their sending organisation.

Addressed to...

This project is suitable for someone who is interested in both grassroots political activism and the world of project management, specifically related to local and international volunteering, active citizenship, social inclusion, and non-formal education for youngsters and adults. It is for someone who would like to improve their professional skills in social project and group management, and someone who is flexible and can easily adapt to different contexts.

Servizio Civile Internazionale: the coordinator organization

Servizio Civile Internazionale (SCI Italia) is the Italian branch of Service Civil International network (sci.ngo), an international voluntary movement that is present in more than 80 countries around the world. It's been promoting international volunteering projects for 100 years on the themes of peace and disarmament, conscientious objection, human rights, and international solidarity, sustainable lifestyles, social inclusion and active citizenship. In the core, there is a real commitment to make a change against inequality, injustice, and violation of human rights.

SCI Italia, founded in 1948, is an NGO recognized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Advisory Member of UNESCO and the Council of Europe.

It is based in Rome and it is supported by several regional and local groups of activists. The regional and the local groups support the work of the National Secretariat by dealing with trainings and the promotion of volunteering in various Italian regions.

“La Città dell’Utopia” project

SCI Italy's project “La Città dell’Utopia” started in 2003 and it is located in the neighborhood of San Paolo (via Valeriano 3F – Rome), a popular suburban area inhabited mainly by elderly people, university students, and migrant families coming from Latin America, northeastern Europe, Asia, and Africa. The building is used to host several groups and associations working on active citizenships, especially in relation to migration, environmental sustainability, antifascism, gender, and self-determination of food and consumption.

The main activities carried out in “La Città dell’Utopia” are:

- Organizing and hosting of international workcamps, north/south trainings, and international youth meetings (trainings, seminars, youth exchanges, and capacity building activities).
- Organizing and running awareness-raising events.
- Organizing conferences, meetings, festivals, photo exhibitions, thematic meals, farmers’ markets, and courses on music, group dancing, language courses, gardening.

Objectives

- To involve young people in the promotion of international volunteering as a practice of active citizenship, intercultural education, as well as personal and social growth.
- To spread the news about different initiatives organized in Italy, in order to promote intercultural respect and international solidarity.
- To give volunteers a chance to actively participate in the development and implementation of a specific project, which is an opportunity for personal, professional and political growth.
- To navigate relationships and improve cooperation among different groups and associations hosted in “La Città dell'Utopia”.

Activities

The volunteers will take part in the following activities, mainly at the venue of “La Città dell'Utopia”:

- Support the activities proposed and organised by the local activists, so that cultural and political programming is continuous throughout the year;
- Helping with the planning and organisation of cultural and political events with regard to: communication and promotion, administration and logistics work;
- Implementing an international dimension to the project through the participation in the international exchanges, workcamps, trainings and seminars with the network Service Civil International and the Italian branch, that take place at the venue of La città dell'Utopia;
- Participate in activist assemblies and territorial assemblies organised by other social spaces networking with La città dell'Utopia;
- Running a course for the neighbourhood (language, music, IT or any other skill);
- Support in the management of the social hostel;
- Support in the maintenance and cleaning of the farmhouse and surrounding garden;
- Developing a personal project following the lines of the project and the hosting organization is an important part of the project. The volunteer must be proactive in proposing a project and SCI Italia will provide support to implement it.

Tasks

“La Città dell'Utopia” is a self-managed project and the volunteers’ activities consist of:

- Office work (communication and supporting administrative tasks).

- Physical work (cleaning, maintenance, preparing the space for the activities, shopping, cooking).
- Work on social relations (with participants of the activities, activists, the members of the organizations who run the activities, colleagues, tutors and other long-term volunteers).

NB:

- Tasks are organized and monitored by SCI staff members.
- Activities are often during the weekend, in the evenings, and take place in “La Città dell’Utopia” so being adaptable and flexible with working hours is a must.
