The project

This project aims to share and explore techniques that promote youth inclusion through informal theatre practices.

The event is designed for professionals working in alternative theatre and intercultural engagement

Erasmus+

Profile of Participants

The project is recommended for professionals who work in:

- Intercultural environments, such social centers and international projects
- Intercultural Groups Accompaniment

The Place : La Maison des Bateleurs

La Maison des Bateleurs has been created in 1996, and is part of the national movement of Solidarités Jeunesses. This place is dedicated to diversity, wishing to host a lot of people from different backgrounds through several kinds of action (events, international workcamps, inclusion workcamps,...)

Volunteers from all around the world come here to share an intercultural experience, to work and live together...
