Brief description:

“EUROJAZZ” music as a tool to battle for better common future. Elisson organises a training seminar with the theme EU - youth and art. The training will bring together musicians, young people, youth leaders, youth workers who work with young people and have different artistic skills, as well as are interested to develop their skills in working with young people in different types of art projects.

This Training seminar will take place in Kryoneri Korinthias, Greece from 12.7.-19.7. 2026 and during 8 days, people will gather in a balanced way (gender and countries) from Greece, Finland, Italy, Spain, Germany, Austria, Slovakia, Hungary and Czech Republic, will work together with the common theme. There will be 29 persons total in the seminar. The theme for this training seminar “EUROJAZZ” is music, as a tool for better future of Young Europeans.

Filoxenia has long experience with projects on Art and Music, like seminar EUROJAZZ implemented in 2016 and long term experience with the International Jazz Seminars organised by Filoxenia during the last 10 years.

Practically: The idea is to give possibilities to all people to develop their musician skills in Jazz context under the leadership of well-known Jazz musicians from different countries of the world.

Workshop sessions will take place morning and afternoon with sessions covering specific instruments, playing in a group, and theory and harmony. They are open to all players who would like to improve their technical competence in one or more instruments played in a jazz context.
