

TRANSFORMATIVE OPPORTUNITY

DO YOU KNOW WHAT I MEAN?

You know it when you find the perfect place where like-minded people are talking and doing about the things you're passionate about!

Imagine living and playing together with people from different nationalities.

It's an enriching experience!

You'll learn so much from each other, and you'll all become better musicians and more culturally tolerant.

PARTICIPANT PROFILE

You have the skills to play musical instruments. You are a musician, especially a drummer and bass player or other instrument. Join us and create music together!

You're a team player, especially in international settings. Join us and live the experience of working where you can show all your musical talents and creativity.

It's essential to be open to collaborating with other activities to make the project more visible.
